BOMB HURLERS' DEN FOUND IN CHICAGO

REVOLT IS SPREADING IN INDIA

LONDON, Sept. 19.—Official investigations of conditions in India show that the situation is more serious than was at first believed.

The military forces sent into the troubled district of the Malabar coast are experiencing difficulties owing to the nature of the rebels and the nature of the country. Fomidable bands of rebels are scattered through the hills, which for the most part are covered with forests.

Two thousand rebels are said to be massed into the Pandular hills north of Calcutta, and another band is endeavoring to join these rebels. Officials here hold that the insurgents can be starved out if the main roads are held and certain areas are garrisoned.

Assimilator reported to Reuters dimmed says that at a council of state held there it was declared that the lives and property of non-Moslems were unsafe except in the vicinity of garrisons and near railways. It was said the insurgents, of whom five bodies are known to exist, control certain areas and that immediate re-establishment of authority is impossible.

"Startling New Developments Predicted"

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19.—Federal indictments under the prohibition laws in connection with the party held at the Hotel St. Francis by Jessie Arncliffe will not be asked as intended, Robert H. McCormack, first assistant to the United States attorney general, announced today. McCormack said he had decided upon delay because he expected "startling new developments."

McCormack is conducting an extensive investigation into the source of the liquor supply alleged to have been consumed at the Arncliffe party, the outcome of which has resulted in charges of murder against Arncliffe to the death of Miss Virginia Rappé, his actress.

Mrs. Minty Durfee, Arncliffe's wife, was expected here today to aid in the defense of her husband. Charles Green, chief counsel for the accused, and Milton Cohen, Arncliffe's attorney, met Mrs. Arncliffe at Sacramento last night and held a lengthy conference with her. She refused to see newspaper men while at Sacramento and remained closeted in her state room.

Russians Are Assured

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 19.—Assurances that "legitimate Russian interests" will be carefully guarded at the armament and Far Eastern conference have been conveyed to the Russian people by the state department.

Put It Up To Arms Meet

GENEVA, September 19.—The final report of the League of Nations' Commission on disarmament given out here today, intimates that the Washington conference, in the commission's view, will be better able than the League to deal with naval disarmament since this may best be accomplished through common agreement among the great powers.

WOOL

BOSTON.—New England woolen industry is operating at 97 per cent of capacity, after months of depression. Massachusetts, which makes four-tenths of American woolen goods, is employing 105 workers to every 100 a year ago.

Wool consumption by New England mills is nearly as big as during the boom in the latter part of 1919, and the industry is close to capacity, says Federal Reserve Bank of Boston.

Spring outlook excellent.

Extent of the textile boom is shown by the fact that the industry was only 41 percent normal last January, against 97 now.

FURNITURE GAINS

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich.—Furniture factories here are running 75 to 80 percent capacity. Orders from retail men indicate this production rate will hold up until January, when new furniture season opens.

Furniture manufacturers are optimistic for many months. They say steady gain in building construction will make big market for furniture.

Furniture factory wages down 15 percent from war peak.

HELD IN ATTEMPT TO WRECK B. & O. TRAIN

CINCINNATI, Sept. 19.—Cincinnati and Ohio Railroad officials here were awaiting further information today regarding the arrest of four men in North Vernon, Ind., in connection with an attempt to wreck a B. & O. Southwestern Railroad passenger train at Riley's curve below Butlerville, Ind., Saturday.

The prisoners registered as Earl Kruse, 22, and Walter Kruse, 19, brothers, Newport, Ky., George Yacht, 25, Cincinnati, Neb.; and Edward S. Horvath, 22, Columbus, Ohio.

The Kruse brothers said they were sons of Michael Kruse, who is a highly respected citizen of Newport.

The Cincinnati and Louisville train, who left Cincinnati at 6:00 a. m. Saturday, was well filled with Cincinnati passengers. Fifteen minutes before the train was due to take the curve at 45 miles an hour, a section gang found the outer, elevated rail on the curve covered with abandoned rail iron. They hurriedly removed the iron.

Detective J. Dougherty, of the Cincinnati office of the railroad's secret service, and Police Chief Charles Schwake of North Vernon, made the arrests some distance from the scene of the attempted wreck. Later, it is alleged, the men confessed and said they sought revenge for being put off a freight train.

Mrs. Kruse said today she had not seen the boys for several weeks and that they had left home ostensibly to join a circus.

Two Circus Bandits Caught

CLEVELAND, Sept. 19.—The national unemployment conference will meet here next Monday at 10:00 o'clock, Secretary Hoover announced today.

The list of delegates, which has been practically agreed on, will be made public tonight. The conference secretary Hoover said, would consist of about 30 men selected as those who would be the most helpful in solving the nation's unemployment problem and at the same time represent geographically the various sections of the country.

The conference on meeting Monday will organize itself, Mr. Hoover said, and then probably dissolve into a number of committees to handle the various matters to be considered. Sessions of the full conference will be public, he said, adding it was probable that hearings might be held by the various committees.

The economic advisory committee of the commerce department, the secretary continued, has completed a working program for the guidance of the conference in approaching the unemployment question, and a vast amount of material and statistical data has been prepared for the use of the conference.

Mr. Hoover did not indicate as yet the nature of the conference's program beyond saying that an unemployment policy was contemplated which does not provide for a system of doles or charitable measures, but would be a practicable working program.

EXPLOSIVES UNCOVERED; ARRESTS ARE MADE

CHICAGO, September 19.—Four hundred sticks of dynamite, three inches in diameter, and ten inches long, and 100 sticks of TNT were seized today by police, following the capture of five dynamiters in the action of breaking a shoe repair shop.

One of the prisoners was shot in the side by police, who surrounded the shop for ten hours following a mysterious tip that it was to be bombed.

Richard Burke, 23 years old, the wounded man, was carrying the bomb when the five men approached the shoe shop, after parking a stolen auto four blocks away. Detectives hidden in neighboring buildings surrounded the bomber and ordered them to surrender. Instead Burke hurled the bomb and the explosion tore the entire front of the store, threw David Krenan, the owner, and his family from their beds upstairs and broke windows for blocks around.

As Burke turned to flee, Michael Burns, chief of detectives, shot him in the side and the other four surrendered.

They gave their names as Michael Bench, James Smith, John Barry and Charles Young. After questioning them, it was not known whether Burke, Smith, Barry and Young all lived at a house on Klinck Avenue, in the southern part of the city. Search of the house disclosed the bomb making plant, explosives, and in the garage a second automobile was found.

Burke, who is believed to be dying, told the police he supplied bombs for several labor unions, and also the men to throw them. Police say he made a detailed statement of bomb outrages undertaken for the shoe repairmen and jailors' unions.

After questioning the prisoners, Representative Peter F. Tague, of Massachusetts, has drafted a resolution demanding an investigation of the Klan which he will present soon after Congress convenes.

Planning Program

Representative Leonidas M. Dyer, of Missouri, member of the House Judiciary Committee, is studying statistics and precedents to determine what action Congress can take.

"It's probable that we'll pass a resolution empowering some committee or sub-committee to make an investigation," Dyer said. "That will enable the committee to subpoena officers of the Klan and force them to appear at hearings here."

Representative Benjamin J. Ewings, of New York, said:

"I don't know of any federal law under which we can prosecute. But it's possible that new federal legislation will be enacted to cover this particular case."

GIRL SHOT DURING RIOT

BELFAST—During a fusillade of revolver fire in Vere street, a girl was shot dead and another was seriously wounded.

BANDIT KILLS MAN

LITTLE ROCK, Ark.—Tom Shadrack, bandit and outlaw, killed one man and perhaps fatally wounded two others in an attempt to escape from the Arkansas penitentiary.

If there is anything in the jealous woman theory, police point out, she had accomplices. The two women and man with whom Shadrack was riding at the time of the murder are positive, they say, that the shots were fired from a touring car filled with men. The touring car was without lights, however, and police believe there is possibility that there was a woman among the passengers. The fatal bullet, they say, was fired from a small calibre automatic revolver such as a woman might use.

The occupants of the Shadrack car, Dolly Friddle, Miss Louise Friddle and Russell E. Smithers, reiterated today their belief that the shooting was done by a gang of Cleveland auto bandits.

SURVEY SHOWS BUSINESS GAINING IN NATION

DECIDED improvement in general business conditions is shown by the following reports, covering the more important basic industries.

These reports were received by The Times in a national survey of the trend of business.

WOOL

BOSTON.—New England woolen industry is operating at 97 per cent of capacity, after months of depression. Massachusetts, which makes four-tenths of American woolen goods, is employing 105 workers to every 100 a year ago.

Wool consumption by New England mills is nearly as big as during the boom in the latter part of 1919, and the industry is close to capacity, says Federal Reserve Bank of Boston.

FURNITURE GAINS

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich.—Furniture factories here are running 75 to 80 percent capacity. Orders from retail men indicate this production rate will hold up until January, when new furniture season opens.

Furniture manufacturers are optimistic for many months. They say steady gain in building construction will make big market for furniture.

Furniture factory wages down 15 percent from war peak.

FREIGHT

WASHINGTON—Amount of freight handled by railroads is steadily increasing. Eight cars of freight are being hauled for every nine cars moved during corresponding period of 1919.

Biggest gains in car loadings lately have been in merchandise, coal and miscellaneous freight.

Railroads are getting out of the hole. Cars on roads are showing net profits of nearly five percent, a time with months of orders ahead. In finished products, sheets are very active. Prices at present trend upward.

SOFT COAL FAIR

WHEELING, W. Va.—Production of bituminous coal mines has fallen somewhat in last fortnight. Total output of all American mines so far this year about 90,000,000 tons behind period of 1920.

Trade in steam coal is gaining steadily, as factories reopen. Buying by consumers has increased. Compared with pre-war years, bituminous output is not encouraging. About 345 cars of soft coal being hauled now for every 375 in same period of 1914.

EXPORTS

WASHINGTON—Exports from America $55,000,000 greater in August than in July. Imports declined.

Greatest shrinkage in foreign trade has been in iron and steel, grain exports tremendous, especially corn and wheat.

Tonnage of exports is gaining steadily.

LUMBER

ST. PAUL, Minn.—Following a slack summer, sales of northwest lumber are from 50 to 60 percent normal.

Recent price reductions, precipitated by Ford car, have stimulated orders.

Detroit, now making 38 out of every 50 autos produced in the country, still has 175,000 unemployed.

CORN

DES MOINES—Low price of corn this year will be partly counterbalanced by the big yield estimated now at 3,100,000,000 bushels, against 2,100,000,000 bushels in 1913.

Farmers probably will average 25 to 28 cents a bushel for their corn crop.

Exports huge.

N. & W. Men Hold Meeting

About 800 men and women representing the sixteen organized crafts of the N. & W., met Sunday afternoon at the Columbia Theatre, where a mass meeting was held for all the crafts of the railroad.

V. D. Landeman, general chairman of the Machinists' Union, presided as chairman. C. B. Lane, general chairman of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, was the first speaker and he was followed by Mr. Landeman and then C. C. Horn, general chairman of the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors. All three men are from Roanoke.

Messrs. Lane, Landeman and Horn gave an explanation of Article 147 of their working agreement, and also made short talks on organization and cooperation.

Due to a misunderstanding the secretaries of the various unions were not at the entrance when the men and women went in and about 50 who were not members were present when the meeting opened about three o'clock. Chairman Landeman then explained that the meeting would be closed to members of the sixteen unions only, and asked all others to leave, including the press representative, who was told personally that a news man was not needed. To make sure that only members of the sixteen organized crafts were present, representatives of each local "inspected" every one present to see if there were "outsiders" in attendance.

TRANSFORM LOT INTO BEAUTY SPOT

One of the prettiest sights in the city is the yard at the west of the Selly shoe company's factory, facing on Pinckney street. Particularly attractive now are the petunias, which have been blooming for considerable time, and the geraniums. The various kinds of foliage plants and flowers are artistically arranged, and make this lot, which formerly was considerable of an "eyesore," one of the really beautiful spots of the city.

Visitors who have commented upon the yard say it is one of the finest looking they have seen connected with any factory.

Twenty Four Years Ago

Pfeiffer, the undertaker, moved into his new place of business, corner of Eighth and Chillicothe streets.

Dr. Charles Slagle, left for California to remain for a year.

Mrs. Helen M. Weindl, sang at the First Presbyterian church during the morning services.

Mrs. Gia Rosenbaum, of Chillicothe street, was visiting relatives in Cincinnati.

Rev. G. F. Carr and Rev. Sleek, began a Methodist camp meeting at the Turner grove on the West Side.

A horse belonging to John Armbrust, missing from the Basham pasture near Seiderville, was found near South Webster.

Wmster Bros., the druggists, were having their show windows numbered.

Willis Scott, bare and heartily, sixty years of age, ventured out on the sea of matrimony again, when he was married to Mrs. Martin Brown.

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dyed Her Wrap, Skirt, Sweater, and Draperies

Dear Miss Wise—I am 19 years old and keep company with a man of 45. He has lots of money and buys me. He has lots of money and buys me. My mother never presents me. My father is dead and we have a pretty hard way of getting along. There is a boy two years older than I am who would like to go with me but mother won't let me go with him because he hasn't got as much money as the old one. I don't like the first man but let him come around just to please my mother. Am I doing right or not? Dolly I will take your advice so please answer soon. BLUE EYES.

Take the young man and let your mother have the old one, and his money. I cannot understand her selfishness. She is sacrificing you for the sake of money. Can't you see that taking money from him is selling yourself to him? He is giving it to you because he thinks it will buy you. When he finds out he cannot have you the money will stop.

DEAR DOLLY—Since there has been so many roadside accidents recently don't you think it would be a good idea to have an officer stationed on each end of the Scioto bridge, on Scioto Trail and Hempstead Hospital and on Gallia Pike and Mahomet Road to examine all machines and see who the occupants are. Then if there are young girls or boys out without a chaperone they could be stopped and sent home. There is entirely too many joy riders gallivanting over the country, drinking and carousing and it is time some one put a stop to it. Do you think this would be a good plan?

WORRIED MOTHER.

I can't say that I like your plan. In the first place it couldn't be carried out with a lot of confusion as there are too many machines, going and coming for half a dozen officers to keep tabs on. If they all had to wait their turns to be examined, it would congest traffic and the officers wouldn't be any wiser when they got through. They couldn't tell a "joy rider" by looking at him, and they wouldn't know whether the girls were with their relatives or with some married master. The best plan would be for mothers to raise their daughters up in the way they should go, and then they won't have to worry about them going joy riding or anywhere else.

DEAR DOLLY—We are two girl friends 12 and 13 years old how long should we wear our dresses and how should we fix our hair? I want you to please give us a recipe for seamstress candy. We are in the 6th grade at school and go to Sunday school every Sunday. We do not think anything about the boys. CHICAGO.

Wear your dresses a little longer, your kites and your hair hanging down your back and tied with a ribbon or caught with a barrette, I had a recipe for seamstress candy in this column a few weeks ago, and I hope those who haven't got this recipe will clip it out so I won't have to print it again.

SEA FOAM CANDY—1 1/2 cups of light brown sugar, 1/2 cup of cold water, 1 teaspoonful of vinegar, the white of one egg, 1/2 cup of chopped nut meats. Boil the sugar, water and nut meats. Add the sugar, water and vinegar, until it will form a ball when dropped in cold water. Have the white of the egg beaten to a stiff broth. Pour the syrup into it very slowly, beating constantly. When it begins to cream, put it into a double boiler and beat constantly. Let the seamstress candy stay on the fire until the parts sticking to the edge begin to look creamy.

DEAR MISS WISE—Please publish my recipe to can pimento, as soon as you can as I have my pimento ready. A READER.

Remove seeds and blanch by plunging into boiling water for fifteen or 20 minutes. Remove from this and place immediately in cold water, pack as tightly as possible in glass jars, adding a tablespoonful of salt to each quart jar, place rubber and top in position, but do not lower clamp. Place in false bottom in wash boiler, or any vessel that can be tightly covered add cold water to about one half the height of the jars, bring to a boil and boil for 90 minutes. Remove and lower clamp on jars. Another way is to soak in salt water and eat in cider vinegar.

DEAR MISS WISE—I am a widow with one child and I need a housekeeper, and had a notion to get married so I would have some one to look after my boy. I am not in love with the woman I have in mind but she is a good woman and I know she would be a good mother to my child. I respect her greatly, and am sure we would get along all right. What would you advise me to do?

WIDOWER.

If you just want a house keeper, would advise you to hire one. But if you want a wife and companion, would advise you to wait for one you can love. Don't cheat this woman by asking her to be your wife if you don't love her.

washings so I told my husband to get six bottles of the Vegetable Compound and by taking it regularly my trouble ceased and now I never have a pain or ache, and am regular. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and think every young girl should take it. You can publish this letter and it may be the means of helping some other girl or woman.

MRS. MARY M. WAGNER, BOX 759, WEST PALM BEACH, FLORIDA.

While no woman is entirely free from periodic suffering it does not seem to be the plan of nature that woman should suffer so severely and when pain exists something is wrong which should set right. Every girl who suffers from monthly cramps should give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

JANE'S AFFAIR

"Why, yes, there is," answered Jane, turning a deep red after Cherry's direct question about her heart affairs. "Someone—I love very much, Cherry, and he also loves me."

"Who is it?" asked Cherry, gently.

"William Sills. He fell in love with me the first time he saw me, and has been tormenting me to marry him ever since. He says I am in the wrong atmosphere here and that I would be the happiest woman alive as his wife and meeting the right sort of people in Chicago."

"Of course I know that Mr. Sills has been calling on you pretty regularly of late, Jane, but I never suspected that you should suffer so severely and when pain exists something is wrong which should set right. Every girl who suffers from monthly cramps should give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial."

GALLANT BOYS OF BATTERY L AND THE 33RD OHIO HOLD REUNION

Veterans of Battery L, First Light Artillery and Thirty-third Ohio Volunteer Infantry, met today in annual reunion with only a few members present. There were six members of Battery L in attendance, while there were only three of the 33rd organization.

The members of Battery L met this morning in the office of Judge A. T. Holcomb and re-elected officers as follows: A. Dell, president; W. H. Lewis, secretary and A. T. Holcomb, treasurer. Mr. Holcomb is an honorary member.

After the business session the members, their wives and special friends enjoyed a dinner at Stet's parlor on Second street. There were about 35 men and women present at the dinner. At the conclusion of the dinner, Judge Holcomb took charge as chairman in the place of President Dell and introduced the various speakers. Rev. John Collins Jackson gave the invocation and benediction. Splendid talks were made by George D. Seby, Dr. P. J. Kline, Captain A. J. Flinney, James C. Leyd and J. J. Davidson. The speakers were mostly honorary members of the Battery.

Among the other veterans present was Captain Milton C. Peters of the 33rd from Piketon. The other two members of the 33rd present were James C. Boyd, of this city, and John Cullip, of Pike county. Captain Peters is 92 years of age and is as Hale and hardy as many men years younger.

The Battery L members present were A. Dell, of Lucasville; Joshua McFarland, of Mineral Springs; Clinton Wood, of Dayton; W. H. Massie, of Rushland and H. C. Wishon, of this city.

The reunion is held each year on September 19, this date being the anniversary of the battle of Winchester in which the battery played an important part.

"Baldy" Haynes Will Complete 47th Year As N. & W. Engineer Saturday

A record of 47 years as an engineer will be closed next Saturday by John F. "Baldy" Haynes, well known and popular Norfolk and Western engineer, when he takes his usual run out of here to Columbus, where he will leave the road as an active worker, the farewell trip also marking his seventy-fifth birthday anniversary.

"Baldy" Haynes will "drive" his favorite in a steel No. 378 on this last trip which will be on N. & W. passenger train No. 3, which leaves here early in the morning.

Mr. Haynes came to the Norfolk and Western with the old Schenck Valley Railroad, and as "Baldy" puts it, he was bought by the N. & W., along with the railroad. The N. & W. has a company rule whereby when an engineer reaches the age of seventy he is forced to retire on a pension. "Baldy" can still handle the throttle as well as he did years ago and would like to continue in the service, but rules are rules and it is necessary that he leave his engine and accept the pension the Norfolk and Western will pay him as a reward for his years of long and faithful service.

Haynes is a resident of Columbus, but is about as well known here as he is in his home city. Mr. Haynes "lays over" here, his run being from Columbus to Portsmouth and return on passenger trains No. 3 and 4 and 15 and 16. This gives him only a few hours in the Peerless City between runs and most of that time is spent in sleeping.

There is hardly a road man on the N. & W. that does not know "Baldy."

He is one of those kind of railroad men who always makes friends of everyone they meet. "Baldy" is well liked at the N. & W. roundhouse at East Portsmouth and in his honor next Saturday his engine, "old 378," his driver says, will be decorated.

Wholesale Prices Show An Increase

WASHINGTON. Sept. 19—Wholesale prices increased 2.75 per cent in August over July levels, wholesale food prices leading the advance with an increase of 13.5 percent according to figures made public today by the department of labor.

Farm products, including many food articles, were 2.5 per cent higher in August than in July, the statement said, adding that there were decided advances in butter, sugar, fruits and potatoes. Meat animals, including cattle and hogs also averaged higher in August than in July. In all other commodity groups, except clothing, statement said, there were decreases in prices ranging from one per cent in the case of building materials to four per cent for metals. Cloth and clothing showed no change in the general price level.

Since August last year, farm products have declined 47 per cent, cloths and clothing 40 per cent and building material 39½ per cent. The average decline in all wholesale commodity prices since last August was given as 39 per cent.

Sims Claims Senator Glass Is Mistaken; Misquoted On Subject of Merchant Marine

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 19—Declaring that Senator Carter Glass, of Virginia, was mistaken in quoting him as saying in a conversation in London that the United States ought not to undertake the development of a merchant marine of its own, Rear Admiral William S. Sims, in a letter to the National Marine Association, made public here today, explained that what he did say was that "with the present restriction of our present shipping laws it would be very difficult for our country to develop a merchant marine commensurate with our needs."

The statement was in reply to a letter asking if the admiral had been correctly quoted by the Virginia senator in a recent speech in the senate.

In his Senate speech, Senator Glass was quoted as saying:

"When I was abroad in 1918, Admiral Sims, much to my amazement, told me in London that he did not think that the United States ought to undertake the development of a merchant marine of its own. He thought that field of activity should be left to Great Britain, saying that the British were our kinsmen, bone of our bone and blood of our blood, and might be relied on to come to our defense in case of war; that they were natural seamen, and we knew nothing about it. Besides, he added, it would require a great subsidy to conduct a merchant marine and the American people were inherently opposed to subsidies."

In his reply Admiral Sims said:

"I am not surprised that Senator Glass was much amazed if he understood me to state in London that the United States ought not to undertake the development of a merchant marine of its own."

"Just how far this is from what I ever have or could have thought of the merchant marine, you may judge from the fact that the navy of the United States would be of very little value as a defense of the United States and our possessions if it were not for the merchant marine."

"In the absence of a merchant marine to furnish the transport for the immense amount of supplies that a fleet would need, that fleet would be restricted in its operations to a comparatively short distance from its shortest base."

"As I remember my conversation with Senator Glass, I said it would be very difficult for our country to develop a merchant marine commensurate with our needs."

England Demands That Ireland Declare She Had Not Renounced Allegiance To British Crown

DUBLIN, Sept. 19—Edmon DeValera may call the Dail Eireann into session to deliberate on the situation brought about by the latest note sent to Dublin by Prime Minister Lloyd George. This communication was received yesterday at an hour that precluded the Irish republican cabinet from considering it before today.

Readiness to meet Mr. Sinn Fein or other delegates from the Sinn Fein in the capacity of the chosen spokesmen for southern Ireland was expressed by the prime minister, but he refused to confer with them as "representatives of a sovereign and independent state."

Mr. Lloyd George declared that the section of the Sinn Fein not dispatched on September 12, which was construed as placing the Irish delegates on a par with envoys from a separate power, must be withdrawn before a conference was possible. He pointed out that when Mr. DeValera went to London to begin conversations as to a basis for settlement of the Irish problem, he was received as the "de facto leader of the great majority in southern Ireland" and that Mr. DeValera accepted this designation.

After Mr. DeValera dispatched a telegram to Mr. Lloyd George stating that the Sinn Fein had accepted the prime minister's invitation to the conference, but had merely detailed the position he and his colleagues were maintaining, it was believed the way had been prepared for a continuation of the negotiations with the British government. Yesterday's note from the Prime Minister, however, made it evident that Mr. Lloyd George was insistent in demanding a clear declaration that Ireland had not renounced her allegiance to the British crown.

The note of September 12, to a section of which the prime minister took exception, was approved by a unanimous vote taken by the Dail Eireann.

It would appear, therefore, that another session of that body must be called for the purpose of maintaining the position assumed in that note, or drafting a new communication, which would, in some way, meet the views of the prime minister.

Shrewd Political Move

Underwood are old friends. They were intimate in the Senate. Mr. Harding respects and admires the Alabama Senator and entirely aside from the record for the past, Mr. Underwood would feel more like bestowing the honor and prestige of an American commissioner to such an important international conference on Oscar Underwood than any other Democrat. It is unlikely that Mr. Underwood wanted to embarrass the Democrats enough to be sure, that is the effect of his action.

Underwood Will Likely Accept

In all likelihood, Senator Underwood will accept the place. He has already been quoted as saying that the Democratic and Republican lines should disappear on international questions. It is an index of the desire to "play ball" with the Republicans on foreign policy. Having the personal care and trust of the president and Secretary of State, Mr. Underwood will not be a minority commissioner. He will know that his colleagues know that the situation in the Senate, the fight against Republican tax and tariff measures will have to be led by Senators Hitchcock of Nebraska, Strom Thurmond of North Carolina, and Harrison of Mississippi.

Republicans Also in a Stew

But if the Democrats are in trouble, it is not a circumstance to what is being said inside the Republican party. The statement is made by some senators that the president is "very glad" to get rid of Lodge. It is also stated that Republican leadership in the Senate has been far from satisfactory to the White House and that a general opportunity to recognize the Republican leadership was welcomed. Again no body will ever know what actually

SCENE IN ENGLAND AS DAUNTLESS STARTED TO U. S.—This picture shows the impressive ceremony with which the British forces paid final honor to the American fliers who died in the R-2 disaster at Hull. The photograph was taken at Devonport, just before the cruiser Dauntless started across to New York bearing the bodies of the air heroes. The flag-draped coffins were carried from the trains to the Dauntless while honor guards of British and American sailors, soldiers and aviators stood at attention.

Illinois Has Good Coaching Staff This Season

URBANA, Ill., Sept. 20—Coach Zuppke again retained as Illinois Robert Zuppke is leaving nothing to chance. Zuppke believes he will have the date to deprive a champion team of instructional staff since his first date at the University of Illinois this fall, took the helm at Illinois in 1914. He has added two new men to the coaching staff. Ernest Beering, manager with the freshman material, the Missouri Valley mentor, and Burton West, a several seasons Zuppke will follow his lead. Both are to be in charge of the football team. He has had a long career in football, having been a student at the University of Illinois, and a member of the football team for three years. He has been a coach for the past two years, and has been selected to be the defensive coach for the 1921 team. The offensive coach will be the same as the previous year. The new coach will be followed closely by the manager of the football team, Burton West, who has been a coach for the past two years. He has had a long career in football, having been a student at the University of Illinois, and a member of the football team for three years. He has been a coach for the past two years, and has been selected to be the defensive coach for the 1921 team. The offensive coach will be the same as the previous year.

Beering comes from Illinois last season and Ohio State, the trial result of his record with the team in the Illinois club to a Big Ten team. Both the Badgers and the Wolverines have several veterans back in the fold, and despite the loss of Stuhldreher and Workman, the Badgers under the seasoned Jack Wiles give promise of having a fast eleven.

To Hold Plans In Abeyance

CHICAGO, Sept. 19—Development of the farmers' finance corporation, financial subsidiary of the United States Grain Growers, Inc., and the consummation of permanent contracts with selling agencies will be held in abeyance until the first annual convention of the United States Grain Growers, Inc., in March, 1922, it was announced here today by President C. H. Gustafson and Secretary Frank M. Myers.

"It does not represent a change in policy so much as it indicates a strict adherence to our policy, as a cooperative company to follow the wishes of the farmers who are or who will become members," an officials statement said.

"Review of the war finance corporation with an agriculture bill amendment has made immediate action on the farmers' financial plans unnecessary and will give time for a more thorough consideration of such plans and a formal expression of the membership."

"Sales of grain for United States Grain Growers members will not be affected by the fact that permanent contracts with selling agencies are not to be consummated at this time."

Alleged Murderer Of Morford Held For Circuit Court Action

Matthew McGowan, farmer of near Chilhowee, Mo., held for the murder of Ernest Morford, Mum's Run citizen, whose body was recently sent home for burial, has been held to the circuit court on a first degree murder charge according to a clipping received from the Star Journal of Warrensburg, Mo. McGowan recently married, in jail, the woman over whom the shooting is alleged to have occurred. The latest item from the Star Journal relative to the case is as follows:

"Matthew McGowan, charged with the shooting of Ernest Morford, has been bound over to the action of the Circuit Court on a first degree murder charge. The defendant, in open court, Saturday morning, September 19, waived preliminary hearing when

Inspector Was Much Worried About Wife

"I wouldn't take all the money in the universe for the good Tardie has done my wife," said John C. Goddard, of 323 Talbot Avenue, Akron, Ohio, inspector for the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co.

"For two years I was worried about her condition and also had to spend a large part of my salary each month on medicines and treatments, none of which did any good. I don't believe anybody ever had indigestion any worse than she did and at times she had such long smothering spells, it looked like she would never get her breath again. She could hardly drag herself around the house and she was too weak to do housework. I certainly never got so much good out of a little money as I did for what Tardie cost me. It made her a well and happy woman and brought the sunshine back to our home. She has a wonderful appetite and gained eleven pounds in weight and is the very picture of health."

Tardie is sold in Port mouth by the Fisher and Streich Pharmacy and by leading druggists everywhere--advertisement.

Judge before Judge J. W. McFarland. The case will come up for hearing in the Circuit Court before Judge Cookrell during the October term, which opens October 10.

Court procedure Saturday morning was very brief. Attorney Robertson, representing the defendant and Prosecuting Attorney Chaney representing the state, appeared before Judge McFarland shortly after 10 o'clock. They ordered the prisoner brought from the jail.

Immediately following the arrival of the defendant, Prosecuting Attorney Chaney said: "If the court please, I understand the defendant, through his attorney, desires to waive the preliminary hearing" to which Attorney Robertson replied: "I have so stated to the prosecuting attorney."

Attorney Chaney continued: "I desire the records to show that the defendant McGowan, through his attorney, desires to waive the preliminary in open court and was bound over to the October term of the Circuit court."

Judge McFarland announced it is so ordered.

The prisoner was immediately taken back to the jail by Sheriff Ed Duncan. McGowan, according to those who have known him for years, clearly shows the result of his confinement in the jail. His face has lost its color and he wears a very serious worried look. Many present in the court room Saturday morning declared McGowan will break down completely before his trial comes up in the circuit court. Saturday morning was the first time McGowan has been out of the jail since the murder, two weeks ago.

Cordelia Burgess McGowan, over whom the shooting is said to have taken place, was not in the court room Saturday morning. As far as is known, she did not come to the city after being notified. The preliminary was to be waived.

The circuit court room Saturday morning was filled almost to capacity. A huge crowd was present to get a look at the prisoner, for most of the spectators knew the hearing was to be waived.

McGowan To Go On Trial

CLEVELAND, Sept. 19—William H. McGannon, former chief justice of the municipal court, is scheduled to go on trial today on a charge of contempt of court. With McGannon, A. A. Cartwright, senior counsel for McGannon during his two trials for the murder of Harold C. Kugy, of which he was acquitted, and Charles E. A. Burke and E. J. Allen, former newspaper reporters, will face contempt charges.

It is contended by the state that the quartette knew that Mary A. Neely, principal witness for the state at the first trial, was giving perjured testimony at McGannon's second trial. Live models at the Fashion, Tuesday 7 to 9 P.M. Advertisement 14.

Opposition Party In Japan Outlines Policy On Disarmament Meeting

TOKIO, September 19.—Japan should insist on discussing at the Washington conference late this autumn not only questions regarding the Far East, but also matters affecting the American coast, including Mexico and also Australia, says Vice-admiral Takao Kato, president of the Keish-Kai, or opposition party, in a statement issued here.

The withdrawal of fortifications from all islands in the Pacific, the neutralization of the Panama canal, the removal of limitations on armaments throughout the world and the settlement of racial discrimination on the principle of the co-existence of mankind and the spirit of justice and humanity, should be included in Japan's proposals at the conference, in the opinion of the National Policy Investigation Association.

"This body was organized to educate the public concerning the conference. Seven professors are leaders of the association and before the war with Russia the same men formed a similar organization for furthering the spirit of patriotism. On that occasion they were assisted by many of the leading publicists in Japan."

"An affront to China is unavoidable," the statement declares, "because China has cancelled matters previously agreed to. Despite the demand on the treaty abroad, it was the means of preserving peace in the Far East."

CELEBRATION OF EMANCIPATION DAY AT HOLY REDEEMER CHURCH

Holy Redeemer church chimed Sunday morning, after late services, sing out merrily grateful melodies to an appreciative and ingenuous community. Why did the church chimes play so merrily on Sunday morning? Was it because beautiful summer was about to usher in gorgeous autumn? Was it because the scared and yester straw hat was out of season and fashion? Was it to remind many sweethearts of the approaching happy wedding day? Was it because the meeting of the disengaged representatives will succeed in making the lion and lamb lie down together in peace? Was it because the Valorem, the president of the Irish Republic had outwitted the crafty Prime Minister of England, or that the Irish people by every right of God and man were about to have a government of the Irish people by the Irish people and for the Irish people? Was it because Americans' unselfish patriotism, peerless bravery or marauding prowess ended the world's war, and made the name of America universally great, respected and admired by all people under heaven? Why did Holy Redeemer church chimes sound so gay, sweet and joyful? The simple answer of "yes" or "no" to Almighty God who had wrought such wonder might well be given to the above series of questions but the true answer is this one. Holy Redeemer gratulated and thanked with fervent spirit his devoted flock who had so generously sacrificed themselves, in a quiet way the great day of their financial Emancipation, and Jubilation. Congratulations and gratitude over the momentous fact that the large and beautiful church plant was entirely freed from every cent of a large burdensome and longstanding debt.

The pastor, Rev. J. E. McGuirk, brimful of joy and gratitude, announced at both services the glorious news that every cent of indebtedness amounting to fourteen thousand dollars including interest was paid off thereby wiping out the long-standing sum of sixty-five thousand dollars. It was therefore a real financial Emancipation Day for the

with a set of costly and tuneful church chimes.

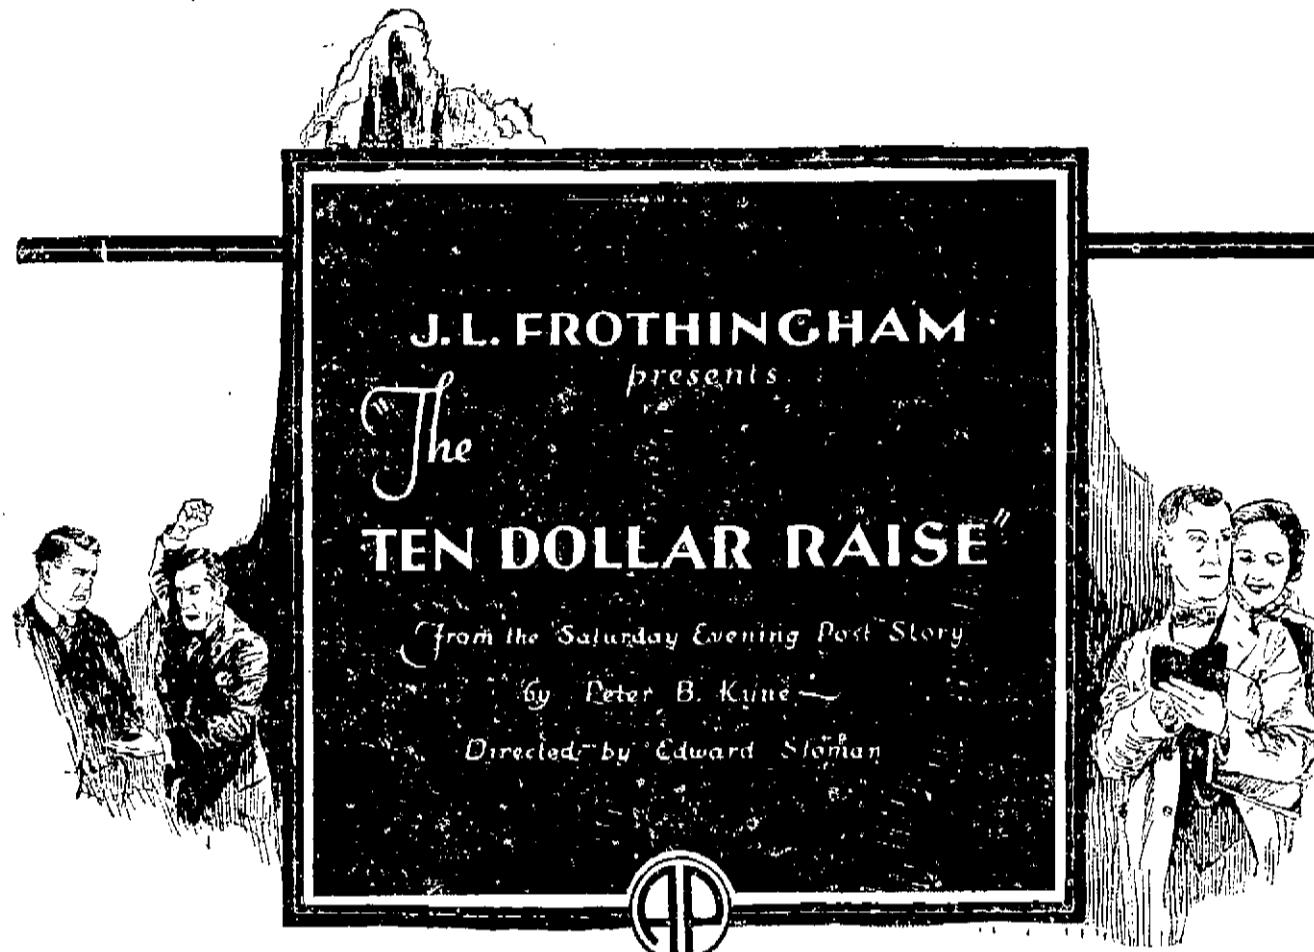

It is a matter of no very little pride and gratitude for both pastor and members to know that the Credit of the Bishop of the Diocese of Columbus, the Credit of pastor and congregation have not only been redeemed but also very much enhanced, by the truly wonderful generosity and promptness with which such a huge debt was contracted and canceled. In return for these worthy sacrifices the city of Portsmouth has been beautified in an artistic manner and popularized far and wide; the diocese of Columbus has been much enriched, and the congregation made possessor of a fine place of divine worship and an elegant school, second to no others in the diocese. The glorious catholic faith, sacrifice and devotion of the good people of Holy Redeemer church, modestly poor in the possession of this world's goods, are most richly rewarded and immortalized in two monumental artistic structures of church and school. The intervening years from 1895 to 1921, fifteen years! How like to the joyful sorrowful and glorious decades of the Rosary! Seven years spent in gathering the insignificant penny a day from each member of the parish by heaven, furnishes striking proof of her, in sickness and health, in good and bad times. These fourteen guided by the great White Shepherd, now a glorious crown for all the Christendom, the lawful successor joys and sorrows which these good Peter whom Christ made first women experienced without ever a head on His Church, an historical journum. What a contrast between the old and new! Between the old Sixth street church plant and that of the grand property of Gallia street!

Long may these noble structures endure, and as long as they endure they will fittingly serve to instruct and edify all men-catholic and non-catholic. How excellent superior and supernatural is the religion of the Savior! How true and beautiful!

How precious and consoling to human hearts rent and torn asunder by religious uncertainty, dissensions and pain. The soul's consuming desire and quest after spiritual happiness in this life and the life beyond the grave cannot be satisfied with the material, only the supernatural religion of Christ gives peace to the mind and heart of man. The natural religion of man's conception is often times a just punishment of intellectual pride. Natural religion like a drop of water swallowed up in the mighty ocean, is totally transformed into Christianity of which Christ is founder. Long before the Savior blessed this earth by His presence, holy David was permitted by High Heaven, to behold in glorious vision the majestic spiritual Church of Christ, her visible and invisible worldwide organization together with peerless beauty of her divine attributes or marks of unity of belief and practice, holiness of doctrine and life, universality of truth in all times and places and her Apostolic succession of ministry. Within the interior of this glorious Church of the New Testament the holy man beholds Christ enthroned upon the Altar and adored by countless millions of faithful worshippers in spirit and truth; while their souls being purified and sanctified from sin by the grace of Christ and His Holy Word, are permitted to participate in the celebration and fruits of the imbloody sacrifice of His own body and blood which Christ daily offers in every part of the world by the hands of His ministry, for the purpose of perfecting man in faithful obedience to loving God and fellowman. In the ecstasy of his soul David gave vent to these beautiful words, "O Lord! I have loved the beauty of Thy house, and the place where Thy glory dwelleth." In fervent grateful appreciation for all the kindnesses and benefactions which have been shown and are still shown to pastor and members by the generous citizens of Portsmouth, the pastor and congregation earnestly pray that their gracious benefactors may speedily be blessed to see and enjoy the fulfillment of Christ's prophecy, "One fold and one shepherd," in the grand old Mother Clutch whose three hundred millions of members of every nation under

In "The Ten Dollar Raise" sex problems which have so dominated established reputation but today recent productions have been thrown

"The Ten Dollar Raise" is a story that snuggles up to the human heart and clings there long after an exaggerated production is erased from memory.

It was produced by Rayn and directed by Reginald Barker. There is humor and there are gags plain story of daily life will hold the audience more strongly than

While this story is gripping, it has a different hold on the emotions than the usual thriller. There isn't one dramatic scene. Yet this picture holds the audience more strongly than

We have never seen one woman portray the gradually aging mother so softly as Mary Alden acts this role. Her black hair becomes grey, then silvery. BILLY SUNDAY IS SORRY FOR ARBUCKLE

The Sunday Columbus, Ohio, State Journal had the following interview with Billy Sunday:

Billy Sunday

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Sept. 19.—I feel sorry for "Fatty" Arbuckle and do not see how any court in the land could convict the fallen idol for murder or manslaughter. He has suffered enough, in my opinion.

How can you punish Arbuckle unless you punish the others who were his guests at the St. Francis and who have told their story to District Attorney Brady?

I blame booze for the whole thing. Had there been no liquor at that party Virginia Rappe would not have lost her life. But there were intemperants, and I see by the papers that 40 quarts of whisky and other hard liquor were consumed by "Fatty" and his guests.

Arbuckle realizes that the way of the transgressor is hard. He was the movies' best comedian. He was the favorite of old and young alike when they went to the picture shows to get a laugh. He drew because he was good, because his plays were not suggestive of immorality. He did a lot of good in the world, because he made folks laugh and forget their cares and sorrow. He was the sun that shone on filmdom.

Blaes Victim Equally

Now his pictures are barred. And while they are banning his pictures they should quit showing Miss Rappe's.

Without a doubt she went to that party on her own free will and accord. From what I gather Miss Rappe also went into the bedroom with "Fatty" not because he forced her to go, for it seems that he did not, but because she wanted to go in there with him.

The girl died, but I believe her death was caused by an accident and not by Roscoe Arbuckle.

That party was as wild as any I ever heard of. There are many others going on just as wild, and that is because immorality is increasing. And immorality will increase as long as people disregard laws, whether they be laws of the churches or of the government. At that, I consider prohibition has been successful.

How do I figure that prohibition is a success if immorality is increasing? You will ask.

Well, the Volstead act has taken away the saloons, for one thing, and has made communities more prosperous. But as I have just said, there are violators of all laws; what the prohibition act needs is bigger funds for its enforcement.

That party of Arbuckle's was just a case of a modern Balshazzar entering in the St. Francis Hotel. "Fatty" fell for whisky and wild women. Old Balshazzar had a party that was most disgraceful, but that party had nothing on "Fatty's." I simply blame Arbuckle for putting on the party. Condemn him for murder! How can they sentence him for manslaughter? That seems impossible.

Roscoe has my sympathy. He needs sympathy. But he has lost his reputation and that is enough punishment unless the testimony at the trial is a

INDIANS LOSE GAME AND FIRST PLACE

Reds Hit Hard, Win Two

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Cleveland ousted from first place in the American League race Sunday when defeated by Washington 4 to 1. Johnnie had the world champions to three, their only run being due to Gardner's single and successive passes to each Johnston and O'Neill. The Indians bunched three hits with two bases on and sacrifice fly for four runs. Score: Indians 4, Red Sox 1.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 19.—Cincinnati took two games from Boston, 6 to 3 and 10 to 0 by heavy hitting. In the first game both Watson and Morgan were hit when hits were needed. Macbeth pitched well in the pinches. Both clubs fielded badly. Long hits, launched effectively, proved too much for the Boston pitchers in the second game. Danforth made a home run, a double, and two singles. Luque was greatly aided by five double plays, while Boston made two. Score, first game:

BILLY SUNDAY IS SORRY FOR ARBUCKLE

The Sunday Columbus, Ohio, State Journal had the following interview with Billy Sunday:

By BILLY SUNDAY

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Sept. 19.—I feel sorry how any court in the land could convict the fallen idol for murder or manslaughter. He has suffered enough, in my opinion.

How can you punish Arbuskle unless you punish the others who were his guests at the St. Francis and who told their story to District Attorney Brady?

I blame booze for the whole thing. Had there been no liquor at that party Virginia Rappe would not have lost her life. But there were intoxicants, and I see by the papers that 40 quarts of whisky and other hard liquor were consumed by "Fatty" and his guests.

Arbuskle realizes that the way of the transgressor is hard. He was the movie's best comedian. He was the favorite of old and young alike when they went to the picture shows to get a laugh. He drew because he was good, because his plays were not suggestive of immorality. He did a lot of good in the world, because he made folks laugh and forget their cares and sorrow. He was the sun that shone on mankind.

Blames Victim Equally

Now his pictures are barred. And while they are banning his pictures they should quit showing Miss Rappe's.

Without a doubt she went to that party on her own free will and accord. From what I gather Miss Rappe also went into the bedroom with "Fatty" not because he forced her to go, for it seems that he did not, but because she wanted to go in there with him.

The girl died, but I believe her death was caused by an accident and not by Roscoe Arbuskle.

That party was as wild as any I ever heard of. There are many others going on just as wild, and that is because immorality is increasing. And immorality will increase as long as people disregard laws, whether they be laws of the churches or of the government. At that, I consider prohibition has been successful.

How do I figure that prohibition is a success? If immorality is increasing? you will ask.

Well, the Volstead act has taken away the saloons, for one thing, and has made communities more prosperous. But all I have just said, there are violators of all laws; what the prohibition act needs is bigger funds for its enforcement.

That party of Arbuskle's was just a case of a modern Balshazzar entertaining in the St. Francis Hotel. "Fatty" fell for whisky and wild women. Old Balshazzar had a party that was most disgraceful, but that party had nothing on "Fatty's." I simply blame Arbuskle for putting on the party. Convict him for murder. How can they? Sentence him for manslaughter? That seems impossible.

Roscoe has my sympathy. He needs sympathy, but he has lost his reputation and that is enough punishment unless the testimony at the trial is a

Arrested After Auto Crash

John Carter, 42 years old, was this morning given by a man taken into custody by the police for alleged driving while intoxicated after he ran his auto into the machine of Robert Riddell, 22, 15 Argusie Road, at Ninth and Chillicothe streets, about seven o'clock Sunday evening. The Riddell machine was slightly damaged and he will appear in court to press a charge against Carter.

More battles have been fought in August than in any other month.

This was the first Sabbath that the Indians have been victorious at home this season. In the second contest Chicago bunched hits off Ruether in the opening inning for two runs and never was headed, the visitors saving themselves from a shut-out when Elliott's error of Ruether's grounder, Wilson's hit and Johnson's sacrifice fly netted one run. DAVIS VERSUS DAVIS

THE Honorable Secretary of Labor Davis and the also Honorable Davis governor of Ohio, though of one party, are not at all of one mind on the situation.

The first is all full of hope and cheer, the latter is running over with gloom and despond.

The first looks on a glittering spot here and there and sees prosperity blossoming into a Wilsonian bloom, the latter but dullness and looks for the deprivation to come.

“We are me that the signs the first behold are not bright omens, but only hint of what the latter forecasts.

No doubt with not an unworthy intent to put an optimistic touch into the prevailing depression and waste that brighter day that is sure to come the secretary of labor points to a continued demand for women's fine shoes and increasing silk hosiery, immediately mounts to the front pages of the daily papers and shouts to the world that these are tokens of reviving and better times.

But no matter how well he means he is all the worse mistaken for that. Demand for fine raiment, when there is slack in everything else, is not evidence of revivification, it is proof that the rich are continuing to squander and that women persist in habits of extravagance.

The governor of Ohio predicts much want and actual suffering this winter. As a partial means of assuaging it he urges the limit in public works and the employment of married men in relays, that is work one squad two weeks and then another two weeks.

Unhappily he has the present and prospect too accurately outlined. Yet, is the actual prospect not altogether so distressing as he fears. There are some indications of substantial merit, that indicate betterment. The best barometer of all, the iron industry, shows a marked, if not exactly a great improvement. August shows many thousand more men employed than there were in July and building operations are ready to show distinct activity, if the material and labor markets would ease up to a degree that would be satisfactory. Coupled with this is the increased healthiness of finances. The banks show a surprisingly strong position and inflation has subsided to a point below that of 1918.

In a word, the country is sound. Its resources are undiminished, in one respect, the supply of gold, it has vastly increased, and all that is needed is a proper share of the optimism that the secretary of labor seeks to inject into it and everybody do his best to help along.

THE BEST POSSIBLE

THE common conception of county commissioners is that they haven't a thing to do except to attend to the roads and spend all the money needed towards their improvement.

That is a largely mistaken idea. County commissioners have a thousand official duties to perform, many vexing and not a few important. Their powers of expenditure are limited. They can spend only so much as the taxes for road purposes yield.

We believe we can say, in all truth, as we say it in all sincerity, that Scioto county never had a set of county commissioners, who devoted so much time to the roads and achieved so much in results as does the present body. These officials do not accomplish all that everybody wants them to, not even half so much as they wish to themselves, but with the means at hand they are doing all that they can in reason be expected to, and that's enough.

Being somewhat familiar with the demands upon them and the money they have at command, we marvel they do as much as they do and that they continue normal mortals. Why if we saw all that was needed, understand the utter impossibility of satisfying even the half thereof and were continually beset and besieged to do this and to do that, as are the county commissioners, we would grow stark, raving mad—w-e'd pave the highways with the bones of those who think their own road is the only one worth improving, at least should be improved before any other.

Such were some of the thoughts that passed through our mind, yesterday, on a journey a friend asked us to take with him. He never said a word in approval of the twenty-three miles of hard smooth road we ran over, but when it came to a rough stretch of five miles he had a kick or complaint for every revolution of the wheel. Finally we grew tired and “ent loose” on him in a way that he will remember whenever he gets on the subject of good roads again.

We have established beyond denial that Ironton hasn't any gas in her. We dined at her famous new “Home-in-the-ground” hotel, Thursday evening, and calling for tobacco sauce we were told by various chumkies that they didn't have any, had never heard of such stuff.

Today we are told the amiable Harding, no we are getting that wrong, the Harding available administration, has been turned down in the senate finance committee; tomorrow we will be informed that the same and still available administration has got the senate back to normalcy and ester out of the land again.
